

NORTHEAST KINGDOM AMATEUR RADIO CLUB

BY-LAWS

1. Secretary. It shall be the duty of the Secretary to keep the constitution and By-Laws of the club and have the same with him/her at every meeting. He/she shall note all amendments, changes and additions on the constitution and shall permit it to be consulted by members upon request.

2. Membership. Full membership is open to licensed amateurs. Full membership includes all club privileges as well as rights to hold a club office and to vote at business meetings.

Associate membership is available to any non-licensed person who has an interest in and who desires to learn more about the Amateur Radio Service. Associate membership includes all club privileges except for the right to hold office and vote at business meetings. An Associate Membership may be upgraded to a Full Membership upon obtaining a valid Federal Communications Commission license in the Amateur Radio Service.

Applications for membership shall be submitted at regular meetings, at which time the President, or his/her representative shall review them. The Executive Board shall have the final decision on the applicant's membership.

Any member shall be removed from the club roster: either by mutual agreement between the member and the membership, or by a two-thirds majority of the "full membership" at a meeting called by the President.

3. Meetings. All meetings of the Northeast Kingdom Amateur Radio Club shall be informal and may be called at the discretion of at least two officers. Such meetings may take place in person, over amateur radio or through other electronic communication means. Robert's Rules shall govern.

4. Dues. An annual assessment of $20.00 per year for Full Membership, $15.00 per Year for Associate Membership.

5. Special Committees. The President may appoint special committees to recommend and/or oversee special club functions throughout the year.
